INDEPENDENT AUDITORS' REPORT

To the Board of Directors of the American Committee for the Tel Aviv Foundation, Inc.

Report on the Financial Statements

We have audited the accompanying statement of financial position of American Committee for the Tel Aviv Foundation, Inc. as of December 31, 2020 and 2019 and the related statements of activities, cash flows and functional expenses for the year then ended, and the related notes to the financial statements.

Management's Responsibility for the Financial Statements

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of these financial statements in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America; this includes the design, implementation, and maintenance of internal control relevant to the preparation and fair presentation of financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

Auditor's Responsibility

Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audit. We conducted our audit in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free from material misstatement.

An audit involves performing procedures to obtain audit evidence about the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. The procedures selected depend on the auditor's judgment, including the assessment of the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error. In making those risk assessments, the auditor considers internal control relevant to the entity's preparation and fair presentation of the financial statements in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the entity's internal control. Accordingly, we express no such opinion. An audit also includes evaluating the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of significant accounting estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall presentation of the financial statements.

We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion.

Opinion

In our opinion, the financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of American Committee for the Tel Aviv Foundation, Inc. as of December 31, 2020 and 2019 and the changes in its net assets and its cash flows for the year then ended in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

DECEMBER 31, 2020 AND 2019

Note 1 - Nature of the Organization and Summary of Significant Accounting Policies:

Nature of the Organization - American Committee for the Tel Aviv Foundation, Inc. ("the Organization") is a not-for-profit organization that provides humanitarian and charitable assistance to improve the quality of life of the residents of Tel Aviv-Jaffa, Israel. Support is provided to schools, social services, daycare centers, cultural and educational institutions and sport centers located throughout the city but mostly in disadvantaged areas.

Basis of Presentation - The financial statements of the Organization have been prepared on the accrual basis of accounting in accordance with principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

The Organization follows the Presentation of Financial Statements for Not-for-Profit Entities topic of the FASB Accounting Statements Codification. This pronouncement sets standards for the financial statement presentation for not-for-profit organizations. The Organization is required to report information regarding its financial position and activities according to two (2) classes of net assets: without donor restrictions and with donor restrictions based on the existence or absence of donor imposed restrictions. New assets with donor restrictions consists of assets whose use is limited by donor imposed time and/or purpose restrictions.

Pledges and Grants Receivable - Unconditional promises to give that are expected to be collected within one year are recorded at their net realizable value. Unconditional promises to give that are expected to be collected in future years are recorded at the present value of estimate future cash flows. The discounts on those amounts are computed using a risk adjusted interest rates applicable to the years in which the promises are received. Amortization of the discounts is included in contribution revenue. Conditional promises to give are not included as support until the conditions are substantially met. Pledges and grant receivable are shown net of an allowance for doubtful accounts.

On a periodic basis, the Organization evaluates its receivables and establishes an allowance for doubtful accounts, based on history of past write-offs, collections and current credit conditions. Receivables are written off when management determines that a sufficient period of time has elapsed without receiving payment and the donors do not exhibit ability to meet their obligations.

Estimates and Uncertainties - The preparation of financial statements in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

Note 1 - Nature of the Organization and Summary of Significant Accounting Policies: (continued)

Revenue Recognitions:

The Organization has adopted the Revenue Recognition for Not-for-Profit Entities topic of the FASB Accounting Standards Codification, In accordance with this standard, contributions received are recorded as without donor restrictions or with donor restrictions. All contributions are considered to be available without restrictions unless specifically restricted by the donor.

A number of Volunteers have made a contribution of their time to the Organization to develop its programs and serve on the board of directors. The value of this contributed time is not reflected in these financial statements since it does not meet the criteria for recognition.

Functional Allocation of Expenses - The costs of providing the various programs and other activities have been summarized on a functional basis in the Statement of Activities. Accordingly, certain costs have been allocated among the programs and supporting services benefited. Expenses charged to restricted funds have been specifically charged to the grants/contracts in accordance with their terms and conditions.

Income Taxes - The Organization is exempt from federal income taxes under Section 50 1(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code and therefore has made no provision for Federal or State income taxes in the accompanying financial statements. The Organization has been determined by the Internal Revenue Service not to be a "Private Foundation" within the meaning of Section 509(a) (J) of the Internal Revenue Code. All significant tax positions have been considered by management and it has been determined that all tax positions would be sustained upon examination by taxing authorities. The Organization is required to file form 990 (Return of Organization Exempt from Income Tax), which is subject to examination by the Internal Revenue Services (IRS) up to three years from the extended due date of the tax return. The forms 990 for 2017 through 2019 are open to examination by the IRS as of December 31, 2020.

Cash Equivalents and Credit Risk - Cash equivalents consist of short-term, highly liquid investments, which mature within one year of purchase. The balances in these financial institutions are insured by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation up to $250,000. Cash in bank deposit accounts, at times, may exceed federally insured limits. The Organization has not experienced any losses in such accounts and believes it is not exposed to any significant risk on cash equivalents.
